12 Ben Feaver
aka Fanny

Passionate Cambridge Football Club supporter, big hitter and like to bitch and moan. Red's my favourite colour and I like long walks on the beach.

13 Mathew Wheeler
aka Matty

At 13, helps to bring the average age of the D2s to under 40 (just). The most enthusiastic member of the team and loves pouring the drinks before the game. This is my passing through year, hopefully passing wind as well as Des.

14 Hayden Curin
aka Bags

Have been in the D2 family for many years and probably many more. Have scored only three goals but that's two more than Des. The best was against the D1 team last year.

15 Darcy Stannard
aka Pizzle

At 48, the oldest member of the team, and the longest serving in the D2s with eight seasons. My two sons also play and we really enjoy being part of the Cambridge club. If I'm not on the paddock, you'll find me fishing or diving. Tight lines!

16 David O'Donnell
aka DOD

A firefighter who has come out of retirement after 20 years and now in my third season with the D2s and loving it.

I enjoy making the pre-match Schnapps for the boys. Celtic's my team – go the 'Hoops'. At 45, second oldest member of the D2s.

17 Geoff Wheeler
aka Big G

Known for his stamina rather than his speed, he played his first 90 mins of footy recently. Scores the odd goal with his head but is better distracting defences, leaving gaps for teammates. His secret weapon was introducing his son to the team this year.

18 Damon Inia
aka Tiny

An ex-policeman, Damon is a contender in the D2's season-long Biggest Loser contest (for which the winner gets a $50 McDonald's voucher). Few opposing players go in for a 50-50 ball with Tiny and get it!

Coach

Greg Zeuren
aka Dutchy

It's his job to sort out the wheat from the chaff – and make sure the chaff gets onto the pitch. Spends much of his time tracking down missing players who are usually found wandering moonlit beaches at night.

3 Des Beene
aka Chopper, Dezz-ezze

Has enjoyed playing with the D2s and is in the best condition of his illustrious career. Highlight of his seven-year stint with CFC was scoring penalty against Wanderers. Will eventually retire from football . . . yeah nah! Gunners forever.

4 Brett Halliday
aka Goatie

I am a rugby player trying to play soccer. I am still learning but hope to play for Chelsea in a couple of years. I think I'm good enough. Of course I wouldn't be as good as I am without my beautiful wife's support. Shabang!

5 Dave Norris

Usually the first into the bar and the last out of it – but mainly because he's the club's bar manager as well as Senior Club captain. Turns 40 this season but doesn't look a day over 39.

6 Les McKinnon
aka Macca

When not injured, plays midfield for the best bunch of lads in soccer history. Enjoying the game is more important than the final score. I enjoy long walks on the beach in bare feet and a beer in my hand.

7 Russell Tattersall
aka Tatters

This midfield colossus is new to the D2 family. Has a ferocious left foot and supports the mighty Red Devils. Also partial to long evening strolls.

8 James Pocock
aka Pokes

Have been playing soccer for Cambridge for eight years and was promoted to the D2s four years ago. Tokoroa, look out for my 'Tokoroa style' football.

9 Eddie Roberts
aka Eddie The Maori

Proud Ngapuhi Ngati Puro. Been playing in D2s for six years with every year being awesome. Favourite number is 9. After a long game of football, my favourite thing is to relax with the boys and a nice appletini. CFC for life.

10 Ben Coomber

In my second season with the D2s but feels much longer. Normally plays in midfielder as more of a creator than a finisher but pops up with the occasional goal. Is a proud fan of the mighty Tottenham Hotspur (bring on the Champions League!) and now Cambridge.

11 Trent Frampton
aka Rubber

I enjoy a cold bourbon after a long game of footy. I support the mighty Liverpool and anyone playing Man Utd. Cambridge is my team and the D2s is the way to go. Free to a good home.

Welcome

Steve Thomas, Chairman
Cambridge Football Club

Steve Thomas is the chairman of Cambridge Football Club and is passionate about the club and its place in the community. Here he explains his vision for the club . . .

Cambridge Football Club is one of the Waikato's fastest-growing sports clubs with more than 800 players, coaches, administrators and supporters.

We estimate that every tenth home in Cambridge (population 15,000) has at least one family member with a connection to the club. That's why we're so committed to ensuring our club represents the Cambridge community in a manner that befits the town – a town that proudly claims to be the Home Of Champions.

The rapid growth of our club means we have to be clear about our priorities in our planning. Our immediate focus is to continue the upgrade of our facilities at John Kerkhof Park in Vogel Street which has already seen new goalposts for our senior pitches and extra changing rooms.

Our club has a reputation for providing an environment that encourages social activity and friendship among its teams – we're seen in the football community as a 'social club'.

While we are pleased to have such a reputation, it's also important that we now focus on building a strong first team so we can compete at a high level and develop our best senior players.

We now have a three-year plan in place to build a first team squad around a nucleus of young players who have mainly come through our junior and Under 19 teams. They are the future of the club and I urge you to support their efforts.

As always, we are grateful to our sponsors who this year include Ricoh and More FM Waikato.

Enjoy your season!

D1's

CAMBRIDGE FC's D1 goalkeeper Al McQuarters makes a crucial save during his side's 2-2 draw against Cambridge D2's earlier this season.

GK Al McQuarters (Big Al)

A keeper for the squad McQuarters has frustrated many strikers over the years. Known to kick the ball the length of the field McQuarters never smiles when a goal is scored. Still not sure why he wears a Dutch shirt. The Netherlands.

2 Steve Fitter

As team psychologist and musician Fitter brings years of footballing experience to the squad. Always smiling and the boys look up to him. Enjoys keeping ball away from younger players at training. Aston Villa.

3 Jim Thomassen

With over 100 senior games for Cambridge Thomassen is still searching for his first league goal. A solid, unorthodox defender his outstanding attitude makes up for some technical and eyesight deficiencies. Arsenal and The Netherlands.

4 Prassanaa Manoharan (P)

Possibly the quickest footballer over 5 metres in New Zealand P is known as a striker's nightmare. Fast to pull a move out of the Karma Sutra P brings yet more unorthodox play to the defence. Good bastard. FC Columbo

GK Nick Morton

I am married to a wonderful woman, Fairlie, and have a fantastic son, Lex. Enjoyed four years with the D2s and looking forward to plenty more. I also enjoy long walks in the moonlight.

2 Mike Williams

Born the love child of Kevin Keegan after his 1976 tour of NZ, Mike's football future looked better than most until the introduction of pies and beer. Mike now plays right defender for D2s. Favourite beer is all of them, favourite pie is Mrs Mac's Steak & Cheese.

ITALIAN SPORT DESIGN

5 Richard Crafts (The Tillman)

From a solid Rugby background - over 20 years of senior play - Crafts has quickly become a key member of the defence. Not known to smile when some young fellah runs past him. A dependable bloke. BOP Stags.

6 Grant Eady

Born in Auckland moved to Cambridge when 6 months old lived here ever since. Interest in computers and computer controlled technology. First season with the club and gets stuck in and enjoys himself. Has been playing in the summer 5 a side for 4 years.

7 Ian Harrison (Principle Skinner)

With a background in Rugby League Harrison enjoys his role as a centre back. A no-nonsense yet fair player Harrison is extremely proud that he was top scorer in 2009 season with 3 goals. A quick sense of humour although not always that funny. Chelsea.

8 Les Rohdelar (The Golden Oldie)

Real Madrid, Man Utd & Liverpool are just some of the teams that Rohleder has watched from either the terraces or the comfort of home. A dependable player who is slowly showing some of the younger members of the squad how to play the game. West Ham.

9 Jeremy Williamson

New to the team Williamson is that tough and hard centre back suited to the D league style of play. Williamson more than often wins the physical challenges. Must be in love as his girlfriend comes to every home game. Drives a mark I Escort. Millwall

10 Scott Thomson

Scott from Scotland is the midfield terrier that every team needs. Someone who battles to end Thomson dreams to score a goal like Archie Gemmell scored against The Netherlands in 1978. The Blue Brazil Cowdenbeath FC.

11 Brad Ward

Back to playing football, Ward brings a dependable accurate approach to the game. An accountant Ward secretly analyses the game but soon gives up due to the chaos that sometimes surrounds him. Orlando Pirates.

12 Cameron Mobbs

The summer's best signing Mobbs is the striker the team missed in 2009. An injury has ruled him out for a number of weeks. A quiet guy but full of determination Mobbs will surely be in line for top scorer when he returns. Inter Milan

www.cambridgesoccer.co.nz

13 Lachlan Pearson

From Otago Pearson is new to the Waikato and Cambridge FC. A scientist Pearson is still to decide whether D1's play is art or science or just plain chaos. Lots of potential and expect a lot from him on the trip to Taumaranui. Highlanders.

14 Tri Bui

With Asian flair and style Bui is the youngest member of the squad. Looking for a Kiwi girlfriend Bui is improving his performance every time he touches the ball. Always smiling. FC Ho Chi Minh City.

15 Bevan Read

An unpredictable player Read never stops running and is known to kick his own players. Another smiler Reed believes he is a ladies man and almost met his wife to be on last year's trip to Taumaranui. A good bloke. Blackpool.

16 Adam Stowers

Every team needs one – the manager of a pub – Stowers love of football brings him back for his second season. His past life includes girls and Playstation.

Always up for a challenge. Barcelona.

17 Ben Konar

With the loudest laugh in the team Konar offers both a goal keeping option and a skilful outfield player. A big man who likes a physical game Konar has the tough attitude every team needs. Wellington Phoenix.

18 Campbell Black

Full of youthful vigour, Black is a new member to the squad. With an eye for the goal Black brings speed, unpredictability and sometimes confusion to both teams on the park. Liverpool.

19 Sam Hurring

Also full of youthful vigour, Hurring is enjoying his first season with Cambridge FC. Always willing to run plus the ability to put in a non-nonsense slide tackle Hurring has caused opposition player some heartache. Arsenal.

20 Liam Carroll

Another teacher in the Squad Carroll is coming back to football. Very courageous and physically deceptive Liam is the squads' utility player having played in 5 different positions in 5 games. Outstanding potential. Republic of Ireland.

D1 v D2 Action

The last clash between these two Cambridge outfits finished in a thrilling 2-2 draw at John Kerkhof Park No. 4. The sides meet again this weekend with the D2's top of the table and the D1's in search of a form turnaround.
